A source of heat in style! Meet the impressive and elegant decorative radiator MONDRIAN. The geometric, minimalist form effectively enlivens even the simplest arrangement. Thanks to it, the radiator has two functions: it is a reliable and safe source of heat and an eye-catching decoration. Hang it next to a bookshelf, a work of art or ... a bathtub and appreciate the functionality and style it combines. When combined with an electric heating element, it works all year round, regardless of the heating season. It is available in over twenty colors from the Instal Projekt palette.
